On the last day of the activity of the Birmingham 2022 Commonwealth Games Queen's Baton Relay visited the "Karachi Grammar School" (established in 1847) in a bright sunny morning of 29 December, 2021. The Queen's Baton was warmly welcomed by the students and faculty members of Karachi

Grammar School. The ceremony was attended by a large number of students, athletes, faculty, Alumni, Sports Legends, and British Acting Deputy High Commissioner. The students were so enthusiastic having the Queen's Baton in Karachi Grammar School as being their first experience.

Mrs. Muneeza Shaikhali, Acting Principal, Karachi Grammar School welcomed and thanked Lt Gen (R) Syed Arif Hasan, President CGA Pakistan for giving an opportunity to the Karachi Grammar School of sharing the Birmingham 2022 Commonwealth Games Queen's Baton. She also expressed her deep gratitude for the presence of Mr. Martin

Dawson, British Acting Deputy High Commissioner. The audience was informed that Karachi Grammar School is the oldest private school of Pakistan carrying a heritage of over 170 years starting 1847. The school was formally constituted by Sir Henry Bartle Frere as the Karachi European and Indo-European school. It was named Karachi Grammar School in 1879. The earliest recorded reference to the school's motto, indocti discant: 'let the unlearned learn' (a quotation from Horace). The KGS shares the resolve to adopt sports as an integral part of education. The first sport gala was held at Karachi Grammar School in 1927.

The President CGA Pakistan thanked the Acting Principal of Karachi Grammar School for organizing such an excellent and wonderful event which was expected. He also specially thanked to the students and faculty for their keen interest and enthusiasm for participation in the event despite being holidays of the school. The President CGA Pakistan handed over the Queen's Baton to the Acting Principal of Karachi Grammar School. The Baton further shared / exchanged by the Olympians and Commonwealth Games Medallists. Mr. Byram D. Avari, Alumin and Mrs. Goshpi D Avari (Asian Gold Medallists in Sailing and Yatching) handed over the Baton to the student of KGS and it further moved to the all students, faculty and guests. Plantation was also carried out by the CGA Management, British Acting Deputy High Commissioner and faculty in the school premises on this occasion.
