J. Apostille/Authentication from the Korean Embassy/Consulate

- ✓ Apostille Convention

A multilateral agreement aimed at facilitating the international use of official documents among signatory countries. Instead of complex certification procedures such as consular legalization by foreign embassies, the agreement allows the country of origin to authenticate the document.

- Official title: Convention Abolishing the Requirement of Legalization for Foreign Public Documents.
- For information about Apostille organs for each country: www.hcch.net -> Members & Parties -> HCCH Members
- Applicants from Korean universities are exempt from Apostille requirements; however, they must submit the original documents of enrollment certificates, (expected) graduation certificates, and transcripts.

1. Applicants from Member countries

- Apostille-required documents: (Expected) graduation certificates and transcripts. (Applicants who have completed their academic program from universities in China should also include degree certificates).
- Issuing authority: Designated institution by the respective country’s government.
- Submission procedures: Obtain an “Apostille Verification Certificate” for the above-mentioned documents from the designated institution in the respective country.

2. Applicants from Non-Member countries

- Consular authentication required documents: (Expected) graduation certificates and transcripts. (Applicants who have completed their academic program from universities in China should also include degree certificates).
- Issuing authority: Korean Embassy/Consulate in the respective country in which the academic certificates are issued.
- Submission procedures: Obtain “Consular Authentication” for the above-mentioned documents from the Korean Embassy or Consulate in the respective country.

3. Notice

- Documents not written in Korean or English must be translated into Korean or English and notarized.
- Original documents obtained with Apostille/consular authentication must be submitted as is.
- Copies of the original with Apostille/Consular authentication will not be accepted.
